

Moving Checklist

The checklist below is purely for client organization and suggests issues/items that may or may not need to be addressed. Please contact your Escrow Officer for further detailed escrow instructions.

ONE WEEK BEFORE

SIX WEEKS BEFORE

	Create an extensive list of all items in the house that need to be moved. Decide if you will be moving yourself or using a		Plan your moving day schedule. Be prepared to spend all day moving. Have someone watch the kids, plan an easy lunch, and wear closed toed shoes.
	moving company. Get rid of items that you no longer use/want. Host a garage sale or donate to your local charity!		Change of address. Visit a nearby USPS for a change of address form.
	Start collecting boxes and packing materials.		Notify your bank of the move. Update your address on all of your bank accounts.
	Transfer your insurance policies to your new house.		Cancel subscriptions and services. Give warning to your newspaper/lawn services of the move.
	Seek employer benefits. If the move is work-related, you may be provided funds for moving costs.		Begin packing. Label your boxes very clearly and pack them according to each room in the new house
	Find a new school. Contact your preferred schools for registration details.		for an easier move.
FO	UR WEEKS BEFORE		Design a floor plan. Share the plan with your movers for stress-free unloading.
	Call your utility companies. Alert them of the move and provide them with your new address.	МС	VING DAY and provide them with your new address. Call your healthcare providers. Get a hold of you		DVING DAY Do a final check of your house. Scan all rooms one last time to make sure there are no items left.
	and provide them with your new address.		Do a final check of your house. Scan all rooms one last time to make sure there are no items left. Make sure your mover has your contact information.
	and provide them with your new address. Call your healthcare providers. Get a hold of you and your family's medical records and have them		Do a final check of your house. Scan all rooms one last time to make sure there are no items left. Make sure your mover has your contact information. Provide them with the address and your number in case of an emergency.
	and provide them with your new address. Call your healthcare providers. Get a hold of you and your family's medical records and have them transferred over to your new medical facilities. Take note of any food in the house. Start using any		Do a final check of your house. Scan all rooms one last time to make sure there are no items left. Make sure your mover has your contact information. Provide them with the address and your number in

(424) 335-3734 | STUDIOESCROW.COM